Hugh is a Practice Leader in the Property, Construction & Infrastructure team at Moores.

Hugh helps his clients navigate problems and assists with development agreements and building contracts through to service, supply, maintenance and funding documents.

Hugh specialises in preparing and negotiating clear and easy to administer agreements. Drawing on his sector experience, from education and aged care to infrastructure and commercial and residential property, Hugh provides tailored solutions that facilitate effective project delivery and address his clients' objectives.

Hugh's clients appreciate how proactive and approachable he is and his outcomes focused approach. Hugh enjoys working closely with his clients as part of their team and ensuring that things work as they need to. Hugh also ensures he has fun, and always tries to make a positive difference, along the way.
