

Krista Fitzgerald Practice Leader

Krista Fitzgerald is a Practice Leader in the Estate Planning & Probate team at Moores and provides legal advice to financial advisors, accountants, lawyers, and their clients.

She is a member of STEP (Society of Trusts and Estates Practitioners) and recently completed her advanced certificate in Cross Border Estates.

Krista has extensive experience in working with high net worth individuals and with owners of small to medium enterprises particularly with:

- estate planning matters, most commonly involving a complex family situation and/or complicated asset structure;
- international estate planning considerations;
- preparation of strategic advice regarding potential challenges to an estate and the ways to minimise the risk of a successful challenge;
- the use and operation of trusts and other investment and business structures;
- self-managed superannuation funds and superannuation death benefits;
- asset protection; and
- taxation and duty issues related to the areas listed above.

In 2018, Krista was named by Doyle's Guide as a Leading Wills, Estates & Succession Planning Lawyer in Victoria.

Krista enjoys the challenge of putting a complex estate plan together, which can be like an intricate puzzle in some cases. Clients not only appreciate her specialised expertise but her professional and friendly approach.
