Emmalaura Messer is a Senior Lawyer in the Family Law team. Consistent with the policy of the Family Law team, Emmalaura takes a direct and no-nonsense/common sense approach to assist clients in managing their expectations of the legal process.

With extensive advocacy experience, Emmalaura regularly appears before the Federal Circuit Court and Family Court. Having worked as an Associate at the Supreme Court and in the Directions Court at the County Court prior to admission, she has knowledge of the Court room from both perspectives. .

With a double degree in Law and Behavioural Science, Emmalaura is an advocate of plain language and ensures that her clients are informed. Emmalaura has experience with working with victims of domestic violence, is member of the Victorian Women's Lawyers Association and regularly volunteers at the Women's Legal Service Victoria.

Emmalaura advises on all family law matters including:

- property matters (married and de facto)
- parenting and children's matters
- grandparents rights
- same sex relationships
- financial agreements

Emmalaura is currently completing a Masters of Laws, which has included formal training in mediation and in legal disputes involving high conflict parties.
