Krista Fitzgerald is a Principal in the Estate Planning & Probate team.

Krista provides legal advice to financial advisors, accountants, lawyers, and their clients, primarily in the following areas:

- complex estate planning matters, most commonly involving the use of testamentary trusts;
- preparation of strategic advice regarding potential challenges to an estate and the ways to minimise the risk of a successful challenge;
- the use and operation of trusts and other investment and business structures;
- self-managed superannuation funds and superannuation death benefits;
- asset protection; and
- taxation and duty issues related to the areas listed above.

Krista has experience primarily in working with high net worth individuals and with owners of small to medium enterprises. She also presents and writes on estate planning topics.
