Lachlan McKenzie is a Practice Leader in the Estate Planning & Probate team at Moores and leads the management of the estate administration and litigation arm of that team. He is accredited by the Law Institute of Victoria as a specialist in Wills & Estates.

A range of clients including charities, trustee companies and professional executors rely on Lachlan's advice in relation to an array of wills and estates matters. He has vast experience in contested estate matters at the Supreme Court and in the guardianship list at VCAT.

In 2018, Lachlan's expertise in this area was recognized by his peers in being named by Doyle's Guide as a Leading Wills & Estates Litigation lawyer in Victoria

In addition to studying to obtain a Bachelor of Laws, Lachlan also obtained a Bachelor of Behavioural Science, which assists his understanding of the complex relationships that often underlie estate disputes. His clients appreciate his ability to distil complex information and his practical and commercially-minded advice.
