

Sarah Adams Senior Lawyer

Sarah is a Senior Lawyer in the Workplace Relations team at Moores.

Sarah has experience in a range of employment and industrial relations matters gained during her time since being admitted to practice in England and Australia.

Sarah's previous clients have included large international and multi-state organisations, listed companies, SMEs and executives.

Sarah's work experience includes working for a large company as an in-house workplace relations lawyer, within a boutique employment law practice and with a commercial law practice.

Significant matters that Sarah has advised on:

- Acted for a client during its acquisition of a large and complex competitor business which included managing the employee communication and consultation process
- Acted as part of a multi-disciplinary team to restructure operations involving cross border employment and tax issues
- Conducted a workplace investigation regarding allegations of bullying within a not for profit organisation

Sarah has experience in conducting and advising on workplace investigations, delivering training to clients and dealing with workers compensation and occupational health and safety matters.

Sarah also has extensive expertise in the following areas:

- Unfair dismissal and general protections litigation
- Senior executive exit strategies
- Matters relating to discrimination in the workplace
- Advising on employment and independent contractors structures and drafting appropriate agreements
- Restructuring and redundancy
- Termination of employment
- Human Resources policies and procedures

Qualifications

Bachelor of Laws (Hons),
University of Liverpool, England

Post Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice, College of Law,
Chester, England

Admission to practice in England and Wales

Admission to practice as an Australian Legal Practitioner

Certificate IV in Human Resources, AHRI, Australia

Member – AHRI (Australian Human Resources Institute)

Contact

sadams@moores.com.au
T 03 9843 2174

moores
here for good

Level 1, 5 Burwood Road
Hawthorn Victoria 3122 Australia
T 03 9843 2100
info@moores.com.au

moores.com.au